Volume XIX, Number 1, January 2018

EXHIBITS: Our Photo Biennial - Through the Lens Exhibit will be on display through June 15, 2018.

The exhibit includes 16 incredible images of Jeffersontown taken by Bee Buck, Silver Gelatin photography and equipment of Judy Rosati, and vintage photographic equipment from the Jeffersontown Historical Museum collection, Jesse Gilbert, Judy Rosati, and John Ulmer.

DONATIONS: Mark Ulrich donated Volumes 3 & 4 of a 1960s Real Estate Atlas of Jefferson County, Kentucky – volume 3 contains excellent maps of the Jeffersontown area.

PHOTOS: The Museum is always on the lookout for old Jeffersontown photos, most especially of buildings in the area, but we are also interested in the histories of prominent families that settled in Jeffersontown as well. We would love to have the original photos, but that is not a necessity – your photos could easily be scanned at the Museum and promptly returned to you. If you have any old Jeffersontown-related photos you would like to see preserved for posterity, please contact Beth Wilder at (502) 261-8290, or stop by the Museum.
